WICHITA MARKETS.

Receipts of Live Stock at the Union Stock Yards during the past 24 hours-40 Cattle, 640 Hogs. Shipments-15 Cattle, 380 Hogs.

The cattle receipts were light. Then were a few good feeding and stock steer on the market which brought pretty good prices. The rest of the offerings were butchers' cows and heifers which sold steady. The market was about steady on good stuff. Poor stuff was hard to sell.

The receipts of hogs were fair and the quality of offerings was somewhat better than for a few days past. Packers took the bulk of the good hogs. The specula-tors were somewhat timid and bought light. The market was strong, 5 cents higher than Wednesday's prices. Mexico hogs brought $3.60, and some fancy pack-Ing hogs sold for $3.60. Bulk sold at from $3.52 063.57%. The market closed steady.

Phillips, a resident of Toronto s preparing for a winter's sojourn in the woods of Newfoundland, where he has what is called a "timber limit" of 250 square miles. It was in connection with this lumber enterprise that, some seasons ago, Mr. Phillips undertook one of the most perilous journeys on record. Important business called him to Toronto, and me day in the dead of winter he started to walk on snowshoes from his mill at Point

W. C. CLINGEN. OTTO HASSEL MICRAEL KENNEDY JOHN BYAN. Hassel, heel and toe walkers; John Ryan, weight thrower, and Michael Kennedy long distance runner. They belong to the Wanderers' Cricket and Athletic club, of Chicago, and are well known among amateur lovers of sport in the west. W. C. Clingen is said to be one of the best known heel and toe walkers in the west. He is a persistent and intelligent trainer and walks with pluck, speed and endurance. Last spring he came in second in the one mile western championship con-test at Detroit, and won the one mile race at the Wanderers' games in September in 6:49, the western record for that distance. Otto Hassel, the captain of the Wanderers, holds all the western walking records from two to seven miles, inclusive. He is the champion amateur pedestrian of the west, and in 1887 won the Washington medal offered by the Chicago Athletic association to the athlete making the largest number of points during the year's compe titions. Some of his records are: Two miles 15m. 48s : three miles, 22m. 22s.: five miles,

John Ryan, the shot and heavy weight juggler of the party, is a brawny son of Erin who has not long been a resident of America. He is a young giant, and, although a comparative new comer in ath-letic circles, made a number of good records and created somewhat of a sensation at St. Louis during the summer. The Mound City athletes did him the honor to charge him with being a professional in disguise.

A swift and tireless long distance runner is Michael Kennedy, who has twice won the title of western champion in the five mile class at the Detroit championship meetings. In 1888 he was champion cross country runner of Ireland, and during the past two years he has made a number of brilliant records from one to fifteen miles. During that time he was only beaten twice.

PHILLIPS ON HIS JOURNEY.

he was disappointed. Thereupon he desided to cover the intervening 350 miles on foot. An Indian and a white man accom-panied him. For the first few days the party made good progress, but trouble be-gan when they approached the mountains. "One night," said Mr. Phillips, while telling the story recently, "we had crawled into our snowbound bed at the foot of a mountain when we were startled by hearing a peculiar hissing noise, followed by a terrifle roar and crash after crash, until we were almost stunned by the awful concus-sion. Hurrying from our hole in the snow we beheld a sight that for a time took from us the power to move. To the left of us, and within fifty yards, the snow was piled up over one hundred feet high, and immediately to the right of us occurred as we gazed the most wonderful scene I ever be-held. A mountain of snow, glistening in the moonlight, came thundering down the ice covered sides of the cliff, carrying along with it huge trees and all kinds of dead-wood and shrubs. Fortunately for us we the pennant of 1890 for that team, and had chosen for our sleeping place the en-

Later on wolves struck their trail. The country was full of deer and partridges, but the brutes seemed to hanker after human flesh. "Day after day," remarked Mr. Phillips, "they followed us, sometimes creeping up within a hundred yards, and at other times peeping over the hill tops, with their great green eyes blazing with hungry anticipation. Deer after deer we killed and left behind without touching, boping to thus keep the wolves from attacking us, and all this time they became bolder and bolder, gradually coming closer 16 Au to us.
